

First Grade News

Week of : January 11 - 15, 2016

Contact information: johnsonp1@columbus.k12.ms.us

Fairview Aerospace & Science
Magnet School

Math skills

Model/Show/Draw/Write addition of numbers less than 20 with manipulatives.

Model/Show/Draw/Write subtraction numbers less than 20 with manipulative.

Solve addition facts to 10 within a given time frame to build fluency.

Solve addition problems by making 10 and then counting on. $8+2=10$ plus 4 more $8+6=$ ___.

Add and subtract using fact families in various ways.

Reading

Story of the week: "Snow Surprise"

Skills:

- a. long vowel /o/ oa, ow
- b. Author's Purpose
- c. Story comprehension - Make Inferences
- d. Robust Vocabulary

Language

Homophones

Spelling

Spelling words with long o and high frequency words

Social Science

Martin Luther King

Listed below are the times you may schedule a conference to meet with me:

Monday - 10:15
Tuesday - 10:15
Wednesday - 9:45
Thursday - 9:45
Friday - 10:15

Reminders

Academic Honor's Program – Friday
@ 11:30 January 15 for grade k – 2nd

Student Holiday - Martin L. King
Day – Jan. 18

AR goal for the 3rd nine weeks grading period is 6 points. Please make sure your child reads for 30 minutes each day.

Spelling Words

- | | | | |
|---------|---------|------------|------------|
| 1. slow | 5. road | 9. little | 13. mouse |
| 2. low | 6. soap | 10. handle | 14. our |
| 3. snow | 7. boat | 11. would | 15. over |
| 4. grow | 8. no | 12. carry | 16. pretty |

Robust Vocabulary - Lesson 17

"Can Elephants Paint?"

1. Agreement - when you are in agreement with others, you think the same.
2. Unnoticed - if you go unnoticed, no one sees you.
3. Unthinkable - an unthinkable event is something you never thought could or would happen.
4. Rejoice - if you rejoice, you show that you are very happy.
5. Predicament - if you have a predicament, you have a serious or difficult problem.
6. Extraordinary - something extraordinary is something that is very unusual or remarkable.